Whereas, at the November term, A.D. 1896, of the District Court of the Third Judicial District, held within and for the County of Grant, Henry Daniels was tried and convicted and sentenced to be hanged for the murder of one Lafayette Fox, which sentence has not yet been executed, and

Whereas, a large number of citizens have petitioned for the commutation of his punishment to that of imprisonment for life; while other citizens have protested against so commuting his sentence, and

Whereas, after a careful and extended examination of the matter, and particularly the evidence of the dying declaration of one Andrew Williams (who was mortally wounded by the same shot that killed the said Fox) regarding the facts leading up to the firing of said shot, and the object and intent of firing the same, and which said declaration was not produced on the trial, I entertain grave doubts as to whether the said shot was fired with premeditated intent to kill or wound any person, or merely to frighten them, in pursuance of an arrangement previously made between the said Henry Daniels and the said Andrew Williams, and

Whereas, to commute said sentence, as petitioned for, would still be visiting the said convict with a punishment scarcely less severe than that awarded by the court.

of the documents on file in this case. I find a letter written to Governor W. T. Thornton by the Judge who tried this case, such letter being dated April 7th 1897, asking that a pardon in this case be issued, for the reason that because of an error in the record of the case of the Territory vs. Manajillo Prieto he is now confined in the Territorial Penitentiary for three years, instead of one year, as the record should show, and.

Whereas: another letter written by the trial Judge of date November 27th. 1897, requests pardon for Prieto, and still another bearing date of December 16th 1897, from the same Official (since retired from the Bench), stating that the sentence imposed upon Prieto was excessive and asking pardon.

Now, Therefore, in view of the above facts set forth, and in pursuance of the authority in me vested, I, George H. Wallace, Acting Governor of the Territory of New Mexico, do this day grant to the said Prieto a full and complete pardon to take effect on the morning of Christmas Day, December 25th. 1897, and upon receipt of this instrument the Warden of the Territorial Penitentiary is directed to release the said Prieto from confinement in said institution.
